

Interested in Christian Spirituality?

The Wind River Ministry at St. James Lutheran Church is forming a Toledo area group of the Lay Cistercians of Gethsemani. The Lay Cistercians of Gethsemani are an ecumenical association of ordinary Christian women and men who are called to practice daily a Christian spirituality focused on contemplative living and prayer according to the Cistercian way as practiced at the Gethsemani Abbey in Kentucky. Lay Cistercians are committed to integrating these Cistercian spiritual values and practices in their lives as laypersons. For those who share a sincere desire to embrace the Cistercian tradition as an integral part of their Christian spiritual journey, becoming a member of the Lay Cistercians of Gethsemani Abbey offers many spiritual and supportive benefits. To learn more you are invited to come to our first meeting on November 1, 2008 at the Vintage Coffee Bistro (3500 W Sterns Lambertville, MI 48144) at the corner of Sterns and Secor in the Kroger Plaza in Lambertville, MI from 11AM to 1PM.
